Something Special In Sovereign Park

Beautiful contemporary 4 bedroom home

This brick and rendered house feels as though the builders just left yesterday and there is a strong family-friendly feel to this Sovereign Park neighborhood.

A large portico and trendy glass and timber door welcome you into the well-appointed home which has been designed for both family living and entertainment.

Natural light flows throughout the stylish residence and the lay-out is perfect.

There are four built-in bedrooms, with the main being positioned at the opposite end of the home to the others for privacy. It also features a walk-in robe and ensuite, while the others share a bathroom and separate toilet.

A great sized office nook completes the hallway with a very stylish feeling. A large media room at the front of the house is perfect for entertaining and the massive open plan living/dining area is very appealing, with an abundance of windows and double sliding glass doors opening on to the covered outdoor entertainment area.
